GENERAL ACCOUNT OF THE HOSPITAL.

This Hospital receives Ladies (for either Medical or Surgical Treatment) who are of limited means, and now contains 21 beds, the charges varying from 2 to 5 Guineas per week. Chronic, incurable, infectious, maternity, mental, epileptic, throat, nose or ear cases are not eligible for admission. Emergency cases can only be received with the approval of the medical officer.

Since the year 1892 the number of cases admitted has been 5718, of whom 3354 were discharged cured, 1566 improved, 269 not improved, 165 for special reasons and 141 have died.

The convenient size and compactness of the Hospital afford the comforts of Home with the advantages only to be secured in a Hospital. Thus an institution is provided for those Ladies who can afford to pay a little, and yet find it impossible to meet the usual charges of Nursing Homes.

The accommodation of the Hospital consists of two wards and three private rooms. One ward contains six beds, for which the charge is three guineas a week. The other ward has twelve beds, six of which are curtained off into cubicles, and charged at three guineas a week ; the other six beds without curtains are two guineas a week. The private rooms are four and five guineas a week.

A garden adjoins the buildings and affords opportunities for open-air exercise : a library is also provided for the patients.

The Medical Officers on the staff of the Hospital give their services gratuitously.

Friends of the patients may visit them from 2.30 to 4.30 any day.

A Clergyman of the Church of England is Chaplain, but all patients are at liberty to see any Minister of Religion whom they may wish to visit them. There is attached to the Hospital a chapel decorated with remarkably rich and beautiful carved wood-work.

Public support is earnestly asked for this institution which provides for a class of cases to which it is an inestimable boon. As the endowments and the receipts from patients' payments do not cover the annual expenditure, it must be obvious that a Hospital of this character cannot be maintained without help from outside, hence the Committee earnestly appeals for continued and increased help to enable it to carry on the good work which is being done. Such a work must surely find a response in the hearts of those who with ample incomes have known real illness, and can therefore imagine how suffering must be intensified in homes where the means are too limited to procure the necessary comforts and skilled attendance.

Subscriptions and Donations may be sent to The Westminster Bank, Limited, 1, Cavendish Square, W.1, to the credit of St. Saviour's Hospital, or to the Secretary at the Hospital.

CYRIL S. COBB,
Chairman.

ADMITTANCE TO THE HOSPITAL.

The Hospital is under the superintendence of the Sisters of the Community of the Epiphany, Truro. Application for admission should be made to the Sister-Superior at the Hospital.

It is essential that the Forms* provided on application should be filled in according to the instructions. No patient will be admitted unless they have been previously presented and approved by the Committee of the Hospital.

* The Forms are :—

- (i) { A Certificate from the patient's Medical Attendant.
A Certificate showing that the patient is eligible.
- (ii) An undertaking by some responsible person to pay the weekly fees in advance for the patient.

REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1932.

Once again it is our pleasant duty to say that Their Majesties the King and Queen have shown the kindly interest which they take in the Hospital by graciously sending gifts of flowers and fruit for the patients, and also calendars and cards at Christmas. It is quite unnecessary to say how greatly Their Majesties' kindness is appreciated by the patients.

Our work during the past year has gone on quietly; the number of patients admitted was one more than in 1931. We think that we might have more patients were the Hospital more widely known and we are taking steps to remedy this.

Our Annual Pound Day was held as usual on Armistice Day, and there was a large gathering of old patients and friends, who generously brought offerings in money and in kind amounting to £104 12s. 9d. in cash with groceries to the value of £24.

We have received grants of £161 from King Edward's Fund and £20 from the Hospital Sunday Fund.

We have received from the Public Trustee the sum of £650 together with securities to the value of £1232 1s. 4d. being our share of a legacy from the late Mrs. Whiteway.

We sincerely thank the Worshipful Company of Merchant Taylors for again sending us a donation of £52 10s. 0d.; J. Barclay, Esq., for a donation of £40 and Messrs. Kirby Sons & Karuth for a donation of £10 10s. from the Delmar Charitable Trust.

The Hospital was closed from the 6th August to the 5th September for the necessary repairs and cleaning and also for the holidays of the Staff.

During the past year we have had many expressions of gratitude for help received here from patients and their relatives. In some cases this has found expression in a practical form, and we should especially like to thank those who have helped us in various ways. The husbands of two patients have done much to improve our wireless installation, another several times brought us gifts of eggs and another gave us useful advice about our garden.

The following is a short poem written by a grateful patient which may interest our readers.

A THANKSGIVING.

Swiftly white clouds across the sky are passing,
Shadow and sunshine in unchanging scenes,
Endless activity within the sphere of nature,
Unending beauty for human minds to glean.

So pass the days with hours and moments fleeting,
Here in a ward where heart and mind can rest,
Active and kind the hands that give us greeting
Noble the hearts that treat each one as guest.

I, e'er departing, would leave this little token
Brief happy message of gratitude sincere,
All my hearts longing in words so seldom spoken
Found compensation in kindly friendship here.

All through the day the gift of generous service,
Glad the response from comradeship received,
Through the long night swift labour still continues,
Suffering and restlessness by gentle hands relieved.

Early each morning thanksgiving and petition,
 Bright glowing firelight for calm of evening prayer.
 Thus for our peace, His Altar set before us,
 And for our joy, His Sacred Presence there.

May I be thankful in heart and mind and spirit,
 May I rejoice where in my footsteps move,
 That I have known such sacrament of service
 That I have met such duty born of Love.

And when impatience would mar the work of teaching,
 Or when depression would spoil the busy day,
 Let me recall the lesson of St. Saviour's,
Give with great Joy ; and in giving "Watch and Pray."

J.M.S.—7th April, 1932.

The names of the Medical Officers on the Staff of the Hospital, all of whom generously give their services gratuitously, are sufficient evidence that the highest professional skill is secured; and moreover are an assurance that the nursing is thoroughly capable.

The Nursing Staff have performed their arduous duties in a most excellent and unselfish manner.

Once again we would chronicle our deep appreciation of the work carried on by the Sisters of the Community of the Epiphany.

We are indebted to all our friends who have so kindly helped us with portress duty, needlework and the care of the library, and also to Messrs. A. H. Hartshorn & Co. for their kindness in doing all the printing for the Pound Day.

Our Chaplain, the Rev. H. C. T. Hose, and the Clergy of St. Mary Magdalene's are heartily thanked for all their ministrations at St. Saviour's.

The following is a record of the patients treated, left and still under treatment:—

As a conclusion may we appeal to our generous friends for additional support to enable the Committee to carry on its good work in these expensive days, without any apprehension that the Hospital will be crippled for want of Funds.
